

Foreword

I would like to congratulate the success of Po Leung Kuk Law's Foundation College in publication of this collection of literary works. Congratulations to all students who have made contributions to this publication.

Writing is really a wonderful process for us to experience and explore our internal world of thinking, feeling, and imagination. What is your writing experience? I enjoy writing very much, including its process and outcomes. I take it as a very important learning process to develop my independent thinking capacity and discover my creative imagination. Unfortunately writing is also challenging and even "painful" to me at the beginning of writing each article. I have to take time to warm up and concentrate my mind to start the writing. But once I can concentrate myself, I can be totally committed into my writing to create my dream with my thinking and imagination. Do you have similar experiences?

I believe, all of you can enjoy the learning process and develop your creative and critical thinking skills in writing. From the articles in this book, it is evident that you are eager to learn, dare to dream, and strive to realize your dreams for the benefit of the community. I would like to share with you my poem "點石的承諾" as an encouragement:

點石的承諾

我願不斷學習，讓我的生命拓展，
另具慧眼，潛修法力，見所不見，能所不能。
我願點石成金，化腐朽為神奇，
讓平凡的生活，充滿夢想、新意和機會，
讓我同伴的生命，得到最大的動力和樂趣，
從平庸中追求卓越，
從困境中尋找挑戰，
從黑暗中燃起火焰，
照耀我們的生命。
我願承諾，一心一意，愛石點石，直至永遠。

I wish you all every success in your future.

Professor Cheng, Yin Cheong
Vice-President (Research and Development)
Chair Professor of Leadership and Change